

Our Home-Ed Agreement

Simple. Clear. Ours.

This agreement is for:

What we do together

■ We learn together.

We can change how we do things if something isn't working.

■ We talk about problems.

If something feels too hard or wrong, we say so.

■ We take breaks.

Breaks are part of learning, not instead of learning.

What I will do

- Try — even when something feels difficult.
- Ask for help when I need it.
- Tell my home educator when something isn't working for me.
- Spend some time every day reading or learning about something I enjoy.

What my home educator will do

- Make sure I know what we're doing and why.
- Listen when something isn't working.
- Give me choices where possible.
- Make sure there is time to rest and do things I enjoy.

Something I get to choose:

If something isn't working, we will talk about it and change it. This agreement can always be updated.

We review this together at the end of every term.

We both agree to this:
