

Our Home-Ed Adventure

The Official Contract ♦

This is an official and extremely important agreement between the learner and their home educator. By signing this document (with the fanciest pen available), both parties agree to make this the best school year yet.

♦ The Learner Agrees To... ♦

Give learning a proper go

Even the bits that feel tricky at first

Ask for help when stuck

Nobody knows everything — that's why we learn

Choose at least one thing to explore this term

Something just for me, just because I love it

Read every day

Whatever I want — comics, novels, facts, anything

Take breaks when my brain needs one

And come back ready when I'm done

♦ The Home Educator Agrees To... ♦

Make learning as interesting as possible

Even on the days when I'm tired too

Listen to what you want to learn

Your interests matter and they count as school

Let you do things your way sometimes

There's more than one way to learn anything

Be patient when things are hard

Hard things are how we get better

Celebrate the wins — all of them

Big and small, every single one
